

HELP RESTORE THE RIO GRANDE FLOODPLAIN

SAVE THE DATE

Audubon New Mexico is requesting volunteers to join a day of habitat restoration and environmental education at Valle de Oro National Wildlife Refuge.

Event Address: 7851 2nd St
SW, Albuquerque, NM 87105

SATURDAY JULY 28TH 8AM-2PM

Bring sunscreen, closed toe shoes, and plenty of water.

We thank Coca-Cola for their generous support.

 Audubon NEW MEXICO

Contact: Desiree Loggins, dloggins@audubon.org
RSVP Here: <https://tinyurl.com/y8rblldyz>

NM.AUDUBON.ORG

VOLUNTEER
DAY

JOIN US SATURDAY JULY 28TH 8AM-2PM

Morning Bird Walk
Planting Seedlings
Freshwater Education
Free Lunch Provided

Thanks to a generous grant from Coca-Cola, Audubon New Mexico is working in partnership with Valle de Oro National Wildlife Refuge to restore and enhance wetland, riparian, and upland ecosystems in the Middle Rio Grande Floodplain for birds, wildlife, and the communities that love them. This region is a major migratory bird stopover site and contains rich biodiversity. Please join us in helping care for this valuable landscape.

RSVP HERE: <https://tinyurl.com/y8rbldyz>

